CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Cbrewing

Parties to the Agreement

The parties to this Certificate of Incorporation are: (i) Cbrewing (the Corporation); (ii) CarterFigueroa (the Incorporator and initial Director); and (iii) CarterFigueroa (the initial Shareholder, as further specified in Section 5).

1. Corporate Name

The name of the Corporation is Cbrewing.

2. In-Game Business Name

The name of the associated in-game business plugin company is Cbrewing.

3. Incorporators

The incorporator of this Corporation is CarterFigueroa. The incorporator shall serve as the first director until directors are otherwise appointed.

4. Business Purpose

The purpose of the Corporation is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Laws of the Commonwealth of Redmont.

5. Authorized Share Capital

The Corporation is authorized to issue the following shares:

Share Class: Common
Authorized Shares: 1,000,000
Par Value: $0.001 per share
Voting Rights: Full voting rights, one (1) vote per share

Initial Share Issuance: Upon incorporation, 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock are hereby issued to CarterFigueroa as the sole initial shareholder, representing 100% of the issued and outstanding share capital of the Corporation.

6. Ownership and Equity Distribution

New shares may be issued by resolution of the Board of Directors. All share transfers must be filed in the Company Docket, stating the share class, amount, transferor, and transferee. Existing shareholders shall have a right of first refusal on any shares offered for transfer, unless waived by the Board.

7. Management and Decision-Making

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors. The quorum for any resolution is 50% of all voting power, with explicit abstentions counting toward quorum. Votes are counted by voting power. All resolutions must be open for at least 48 hours and posted somewhere accessible to eligible voters.

Director Election: Directors shall be elected by a majority vote of the shareholders. Each director shall serve until their successor is duly elected or until earlier resignation or removal.

Director Removal: Any director may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the shareholders. Notice of any proposed removal must be posted and open for at least 48 hours in a location accessible to all eligible voters.

Vacancies: Any vacancy on the Board of Directors arising through resignation, removal, death, or otherwise may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, or, if no directors remain, by a majority vote of the shareholders.

8. Roles and Responsibilities

Each director, officer, and agent must act in good faith, on an informed basis, with reasonable care, and in the best interest of the Corporation and its shareholders.

Shareholder Contributions: The anticipated contribution of CarterFigueroa, as the sole initial shareholder, is capital investment in the Corporation. CarterFigueroa shall provide financial resources necessary to fund the Corporation’s initial operations and ongoing activities as determined by the Board of Directors.

9. Dividends and Distributions

The Board of Directors may declare and pay dividends to shareholders out of available funds, in proportion to Common shares held.

10. Transfer of Shares

Shares may be freely transferred between persons subject to any restrictions established by the Board. All transfers must be recorded in the Share Register and filed in the Company Docket.

11. Financing Arrangements

The Corporation may raise financing through share issuances, debt instruments, or other lawful means as determined by the Board of Directors.

12. Dispute Resolution

All disputes between shareholders or between shareholders and the Corporation shall be resolved in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Redmont.

13. Exit Strategies

In the event of a shareholder's death, incapacitation, or desire to sell shares, the share transfer procedures in Section 10 above shall apply. The Board may establish additional exit provisions by resolution.

14. Shareholder Information and Meetings

The Board shall keep shareholders reasonably informed of material developments. Any shareholder, director, or officer may call for a resolution to be voted upon.

15. Reserved Matters

The following matters require shareholder approval by resolution: amendments to this Certificate of Incorporation, dissolution and winding up, and any merger or consolidation with another entity.

16. Amendments

Amendments to this Certificate of Incorporation may be adopted by shareholder resolution requiring at least a majority of total voting power. Amendments affecting the Common share class require a majority vote within that class.

Unless otherwise provided in this Certificate, the Board of Directors may adopt, amend, or repeal Bylaws by majority vote.

17. Dissolution

Dissolution shall be initiated by a resolution of the Board of Directors, posted in the Company Docket. Dissolution must be approved by a simple majority shareholder vote. The Corporation shall then wind down its affairs and file a Certificate of Dissolution in the Company Docket upon completion.

18. Liability

The Corporation shall be solely liable for its own debts and obligations. No director, officer, shareholder, or other agent shall be personally liable for the Corporation's debts solely by reason of their role, except as otherwise provided by law.

19. Perpetual Existence

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence unless otherwise resolved by its shareholders.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporator has executed this Certificate of Incorporation.
