Incorporation of Summit Enterprises

Johnathan Bonnet hereby declares the incorporation of Summit Enterprises, effective immediately, in accordance to the following specifications and regulations.

Entity name: Summit Enterprises

Entity type: Corporation

Associated plug-in company: SummitEnterprises

Entity purpose: To hold the shares of, provide centralised recruitment for, and improve cooperation, primarily pertaining to realty and cross-investment, between the other (yet to be created at the filing of this document) corporations of the Summit Group, and/or any other lawful activity, courtesy of the Supervisory Board.

Incorporator names: Johnathan Bonnet

Officers within the entity as of its formation:

Chairman of the Supervisory Board: Johnathan Bonnet

Chief Executive Officer: Vacant

Chief Asset Officer: Johnathan Bonnet

Shareholders of the entity as of its formation:

Johnathan Bonnet: 100 out of 100 shares

Issuing of shares of the entity:

In compliance with “Formation of the Supervisory board”, 100 Class A shares, each with an equal value, ownership of one percent (1%) of this corporation and one vote on the Supervisory Board are hereby issued.

Formation of the Supervisory Board:

The Supervisory Board of the shareholders is hereby formed. Its purpose is to maintain the integrity and efficiency of this corporation. All shareholders holding more than five percent (>5%) of this corporation’s shares are entitled to physical access to the meetings of the Supervisory Board and petitioning votes by it on any subject.

A Chairman of the Supervisory Board must always be existent and is appointed via simple majority (>50%) vote. He may organize the actions of the Supervisory Board, but may never interfere with its petitioning and/or voting processes.

The Supervisory Board is the sole representation and control body of the shareholders. Additionally, it’s the sole entity with authority above the officers of this corporation, voiding the existence of directors and managers, and only it may legislate bylaws.

It may review this corporation's finances, staff's actions or any other aspects of it, including extracting relevant documentation.

Every full (1) share entitles its owner to a vote on the Supervisory Board. Through a simple majority (>50%) vote the Supervisory Board may enact and/or amend bylaws regulating this corporation.

It may only enact and/or amend any regulations pertaining to its functions and voting procedures, including this document and bylaws, through a two thirds (2/3) supermajority vote. It may only enact and/or amend any regulations pertaining to and/or authorized by Part V of the Redmont Commerce and Finance Act through a two thirds (2/3) supermajority vote. It may only issue additional shares of this corporation through a two thirds (2/3) supermajority vote.