CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

CINZANO SECURITIES LLC

Commonwealth of Redmont

ARTICLE I - NAME, OFFICE, PURPOSE, AND TERM

1.1 Name. The name of the Company is Cinzano Securities LLC, referred to in this Agreement as the "Company." 1.2 Registered Office. The registered office of the Company shall be CBD011, Commonwealth of Redmont, or any replacement office designated in writing by the Sole Member and recorded in the Company records. 1.3 Purpose. The Company is organized as a trading firm specialising in liquidity provision. It may quote prices at which it is willing to buy and sell securities, execute trades, manage proprietary positions, and conduct related trading, treasury, research, risk-management, investment, and other lawful activities incidental to those purposes. 1.4 Term. The Company shall continue until dissolved in accordance with this Agreement or applicable law.

ARTICLE II - SOLE MEMBER, OWNERSHIP, AND CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

2.1 Sole Member and Ownership. Bloatmaxxer is the sole owner, sole member, sole shareholder, and holder of all voting power in the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, Bloatmaxxer is referred to as the "Sole Member."

Member	Capital Contribution	Ownership Interest	Voting Power
Bloatmaxxer	$105,00.00	100%	100%

2.2 Initial Contribution. The Sole Member has contributed, or shall contribute, the property or funds recorded in the Company books as the initial capital contribution. The absence of a stated monetary amount in this Agreement does not reduce the Sole Member's 100% ownership interest.

2.3 Additional Contributions. The Sole Member may make additional capital contributions at any time. An additional contribution shall be recorded in the Company records and shall not create an ownership interest in any other person unless the Sole Member expressly admits that person under Article VI.

2.4 No Unauthorized Withdrawal of Capital. Company capital may be withdrawn only through a distribution, repayment, transfer, or winding up authorized by the Sole Member and permitted by applicable law.

ARTICLE III - MANAGEMENT, AUTHORITY, AND DECISION-MAKING

3.1 Management by Managing Director. The Company shall be managed by Bloatmaxxer, who shall serve as the sole Managing Director. Bloatmaxxer shall also remain the Sole Owner, Sole Member, and Sole Shareholder unless ownership is changed by a formal written amendment under Article VI. The Managing Director has full authority to control the business, property, operations, personnel, contracts, accounts, and affairs of the Company. 3.2 Voting Rights. The Sole Member holds 100% of the voting power. Every Company decision requiring an owner, member, shareholder, or director vote may be approved by the Sole Member acting alone.

3.3 Approval Standard. A decision is valid when approved by the Sole Member in writing or otherwise recorded in a form capable of being retained as evidence. No second signature, casting vote, or additional approval is required unless applicable law expressly provides otherwise.

3.4 Ordinary and Extraordinary Authority. The Managing Director may execute contracts; open, operate, and control banking and trading accounts; employ or dismiss personnel; acquire or dispose of Company property and securities; enter, manage, or close trading positions; borrow money and grant security over Company assets; appoint or remove officers, directors, managers, traders, advisers, contractors, and agents; and conduct all ordinary or extraordinary affairs of the Company, subject to applicable law and any written limitation adopted by the Sole Member.

3.5 Delegation. The Managing Director may delegate authority to officers, employees, traders, advisers, contractors, or agents. Delegation may be limited or revoked at any time and does not reduce the Managing Director's ultimate authority over the Company.

3.6 Written Company Actions. The Sole Member may act by written resolution without a meeting. A retained direct message, in-game message, email, signed document, Company record, or other reliable written platform may evidence a resolution or approval.

3.7 Voting Following Admission of New Owners. If one or more new owners are admitted, voting power shall be exercised in the proportions recorded in the formal written amendment admitting them. Unless that amendment establishes a higher approval threshold, a Company decision shall require approval by holders of more than 50% of the total voting power.

ARTICLE IV - MANAGING DIRECTOR DUTIES AND COMPANY OPERATIONS

4.1 Managing Director Duties. The Managing Director shall manage and develop the Company, protect Company property and confidential information, maintain reasonable records, act honestly toward the Company, and exercise authority in the Company's interests.

4.2 Trading Operations. The Managing Director may establish trading strategies, risk limits, investment policies, approved markets, recordkeeping practices, and internal controls. These operational rules may be amended or withdrawn by the Sole Member at any time.

4.3 Company Property and Accounts. All funds, securities, investments, records, systems, intellectual property, contracts, and other assets acquired in the Company's name are Company property unless the Sole Member records otherwise in writing.

4.4 Conflicts and Company Opportunities. Any officer, employee, contractor, or agent shall disclose a material personal interest in a proposed Company transaction and shall not misuse Company information, assets, funds, accounts, or opportunities for personal benefit.

4.5 Confidentiality. Non-public trading information, strategies, account information, client or counterparty information, internal records, and operational data shall be treated as confidential except where disclosure is authorized by the Managing Director or required by law.

ARTICLE V - PROFITS, LOSSES, AND DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Allocation. All Company profits, gains, losses, deductions, and other economic results shall be allocated 100% to Bloatmaxxer as the Sole Member, subject to applicable law and the separate legal identity of the Company. 5.2 Distributions. Available profits may be distributed to the Sole Member at the time and in the amount determined by the Sole Member after payment or provision for Company debts, payroll, commissions, expenses, taxes, reserves, open obligations, and reasonable trading or operating capital.

5.3 No Rights of Other Persons. No officer, employee, trader, contractor, creditor, or other person is entitled to any ownership distribution solely because of position, work performed, compensation, or access to Company property, unless a written agreement expressly provides otherwise.

ARTICLE VI - TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP AND ADMISSION OF NEW OWNERS

6.1 Restriction on Transfer by Others. No person other than the Sole Member may sell, assign, pledge, gift, or otherwise transfer an ownership, membership, or shareholder interest in the Company because no such person holds an interest unless admitted under this Article.

6.2 Transfer by Sole Member. The Sole Member may transfer all or part of the ownership interest only through a formal written amendment identifying the interest transferred, the transferee, the effective date, the resulting ownership and voting power, and any applicable terms. The amendment shall be retained in the Company records. 6.3 Admission of New Owners. Bloatmaxxer may admit one or more new members, owners, or shareholders at Bloatmaxxer's sole discretion through a formal written amendment. The amendment shall state each person's ownership interest, voting power, capital contribution, rights, obligations, and effective date.

6.4 Effect of Admission. When a formal written amendment admitting a new owner takes effect, ownership and voting rights shall thereafter be exercised according to the percentages recorded in that amendment. Until its effective date, Bloatmaxxer retains 100% ownership, voting power, and management authority.

6.5 Economic Assignee. A transferee who receives only an economic interest and is not admitted as an owner may receive only the economic rights expressly transferred and shall have no voting, management, information, or representative authority except as stated in writing by the Sole Member.

ARTICLE VII - CONTINUITY, RESIGNATION, AND SUCCESSION

7.1 Continuity and Retention of Interest. Temporary or prolonged absence, inactivity, or unavailability shall not remove Bloatmaxxer from the Company or reduce, transfer, suspend, or terminate Bloatmaxxer's ownership interest, titles, voting power, or management authority. The Company shall not automatically dissolve because of such absence, inactivity, or unavailability unless dissolution is required by applicable law or directed through a valid written decision under Article X.
7.2 Temporary Delegation. The Managing Director may appoint an acting director, officer, or agent to exercise specified authority during an absence or period of unavailability. The appointment shall state its scope and may be revoked at any time.

7.3 Resignation as Managing Director. Bloatmaxxer may resign as Managing Director by a written Company resolution and may appoint a replacement manager while retaining ownership. Resignation from management does not by itself transfer or terminate the Sole Member's ownership interest.

7.4 Succession Direction. The Sole Member may record a written direction governing the transfer, administration, or management of the Company following death, incapacity, permanent absence, or another specified event, subject to applicable law. No successor obtains authority until the stated event occurs and the direction becomes effective. 7.5 Protection of Company Access. The Managing Director may grant, restrict, suspend, or revoke access to Company funds, accounts, systems, records, premises, trading platforms, and communication channels whenever reasonably necessary to protect the Company.

ARTICLE VIII - BYLAWS, RECORDS, AND INFORMATION

8.1 Bylaws and Policies. The Sole Member may adopt bylaws, trading policies, risk procedures, employment rules, staff rules, security controls, and other internal governance documents. Such documents supplement this Agreement and are void to the extent they conflict with it.

8.2 Company Records. The Company shall maintain reasonable records of ownership, capital contributions, resolutions, income, expenses, distributions, contracts, trading activity, assets, liabilities, staff arrangements, delegations, and amendments.

8.3 Access and Control. The Sole Member is entitled to full access to Company records and material information. Access by any other person is subject to authorization, confidentiality obligations, legal restrictions, and reasonable security controls.

8.4 Written Communications. A notice, approval, direction, or resolution under this Agreement may be delivered through any written platform capable of being retained as evidence, including an in-game message, forum message, direct message, email, signed document, or Company record.

ARTICLE IX - AMENDMENTS

9.1 Approval While Sole Owner. While Bloatmaxxer remains the Sole Owner, Sole Member, and Sole Shareholder, this Certificate of Incorporation and governing Agreement may be amended only through Bloatmaxxer's formal written approval.

9.2 Approval Following Admission of New Owners. After one or more new owners are admitted, an amendment shall require approval by holders of more than 50% of the total voting power unless the amendment admitting those owners or another valid provision establishes a higher approval threshold.

9.3 Form of Amendment. Every amendment must identify the provision being changed, state the replacement wording or effect, and be retained with the Company records. No oral amendment is effective.

9.4 Effect on Filed Information. Where an amendment changes information required to be filed or registered, the Managing Director shall cause the appropriate filing or update to be made.

ARTICLE X - DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

10.1 Dissolution Events. While Bloatmaxxer remains the Sole Owner, the Company may be dissolved through Bloatmaxxer's written decision. If new owners have been admitted, dissolution shall require the approval threshold applicable under Article III or any higher threshold established by the amendment admitting them. The Company shall also be dissolved when required by applicable law or a binding order.

10.2 Winding Up. Upon dissolution, the Managing Director or another authorized person shall close or transfer open trading positions where appropriate, collect Company property, settle or provide for liabilities, terminate contracts, preserve necessary records, and wind up the Company's affairs.

10.3 Order of Distribution. After payment or provision for Company debts and liabilities, remaining assets shall first be applied to amounts properly owed to the Sole Member and then distributed 100% to Bloatmaxxer, subject to applicable law and any valid transfer recorded before dissolution.

10.4 Final Filings. The authorized person shall submit any required dissolution, cancellation, or closing documents and shall take reasonable steps to terminate the Company's operations and accounts.

ARTICLE XI - LIABILITY AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

11.1 Limited Liability. The Sole Member shall enjoy limited liability to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. Bloatmaxxer is not personally liable for a Company obligation solely by reason of being the owner, member, shareholder, or Managing Director.

11.2 Separate Legal Entity. Company property and obligations are separate from the personal property and obligations of the Sole Member, except where applicable law or a binding determination provides otherwise. 11.3 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Redmont and any binding rules applicable to the Company and its trading activities.

11.4 Entire Agreement. This document and any valid supplemental agreement expressly permitted by it constitute the governing agreement concerning the Company.

11.5 Priority. If a bylaw, policy, employment agreement, delegation, staff agreement, or other internal document conflicts with this Agreement, this Agreement controls unless it has been validly amended by the Sole Member. 11.6 Severability. If any provision is held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in effect to the fullest extent possible.

11.7 Counterparts and Electronic Signature. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts and through an electronic or in-game signature accepted by the Sole Member. All counterparts together form one document.

ARTICLE XII - EXECUTION

12.1 Effective Date. This Agreement becomes effective on 2 August 2026 (02/08/2026).
