THE WOOLMART CORPORATION

Certificate of Incorporation

This Certificate establishes the constitution of The Woolmart Corporation under the Redmont Corporate Entities Act (the "Act").

1 Name and incorporation

1.1 The registered name of the entity is The Woolmart Corporation (the "Corporation").

1.2 The entity is incorporated as a corporation under the Act.

1.3 The sole founder and incorporator is jsrkiwi.

1.4 The associated in-game company is Walmart.

2 Purpose and activities

2.1 The Corporation is established to conduct retail and wholesale trade, including operating shops and buying and selling goods, and to engage in any other lawful business or activity.

2.2 The Corporation may acquire and develop property, employ staff, enter contracts, borrow, invest, own subsidiaries and undertake other lawful activities in support of its business.

3 Share capital and Class A rights

3.1 The Corporation is authorised to issue 100,000 Class A shares with a par value of $0.01 per share, giving an aggregate authorised par value of $1,000.

3.2 Each outstanding Class A share carries one vote on every matter submitted to shareholders, an equal entitlement per share to any dividend or other distribution declared for that class, and an equal entitlement per share to surplus assets distributed on winding up.

3.3 All Class A shares rank equally. These rights are subject to the Act, including its restrictions on distributions and on rights attaching to shares held by the Corporation or its controlled entities.

4 Initial share issue

4.1 Upon incorporation and the filing of this initial issue, all 1,000 Class A shares shall be issued to jsrkiwi at an agreed subscription price of $1 per share, totalling $1,000.

4.2 Any unpaid portion of that agreed subscription remains payable by jsrkiwi. This Certificate does not acknowledge receipt of payment.

4.3 The initial share register, effective upon that issue, is:

Shareholder	Class	Shares	Holding
jsrkiwi	Class A	1,000	100%

5 Management and correspondence

5.1 The first and sole initial director is jsrkiwi, with the title Director.

5.2 The board directs the Corporation's business and may appoint officers and delegate authority in accordance with the Act. Subsequent directors shall be elected and removed in accordance with the Act.

5.3 jsrkiwi is designated to receive legal correspondence for the Corporation and accepts that designation by adopting this Certificate.

6 Governance

6.1 The Act governs matters not expressly addressed in this Certificate, including voting, quorum, written consent, directors' duties, shareholder rights and capital protection.

6.2 No separate bylaws are adopted on incorporation. Bylaws may subsequently be adopted in accordance with the Act and this Certificate.

6.3 This Certificate imposes no additional personal liability on a shareholder or agent beyond liability arising under the Act or separately accepted by that person.

7 Duration and amendment

7.1 The Corporation has no fixed expiry date.

7.2 This Certificate may be amended, and the Corporation may be wound up and dissolved, in accordance with the Act.

8 Adoption

8.1 The incorporator adopts this Certificate, approves the initial share issue and subscription in section 4, and accepts the directorship and correspondence designation in section 5.

Adopted on: 19 October 2026
