PART II — CERTIFICATE OF FORMATION

Pursuant to the Legal Entity Act, Part V, Section 1, the following Certificate of Formation is hereby filed as the formation instrument of Krowyn Accounting LLC.

CERTIFICATE OF FORMATION — KROWYN ACCOUNTING LLC
(a) Name of the LLC	Krowyn Accounting LLC
(b) In-Game Company Name	KroCount
(c) Name of the Incorporator(s)	Krowyn
(d) Nature of Business	Accounting, bookkeeping, financial record-keeping, and related professional financial services for individuals and businesses within the Commonwealth of Redmont. The LLC may engage in any lawful act or activity for which LLCs may be organized under the Laws of Redmont.

SECTION 1 — Management Structure

This LLC shall be Manager-Managed as defined in LEA Part V, Section 5. Krowyn is designated as the initial Manager with full authority to manage day-to-day operations, enter into contracts, hire and remove employees, and make all business decisions on behalf of the LLC.

SECTION 2 — Capital Contributions (Business Incorporation Policy §2(a))

Initial Capital Contribution: Krowyn Holdings Co (KroHold), as the sole member, shall contribute the initial capital required to fund the LLC's operations as determined by the Manager.

Additional Capital Contributions: The Manager may require additional capital contributions from members upon 14 days' written notice posted in the Company Docket. Members failing to meet capital contribution requirements within 30 days may have their membership interests diluted proportionally or forfeited at the Manager's discretion.

SECTION 3 — Profit and Loss Distribution (Business Incorporation Policy §3(a))

Profits and Losses shall be allocated to members in proportion to their membership interests. Krowyn Holdings Co (KroHold), holding 100% of membership interests, shall receive 100% of profits and bear 100% of losses.

Distributions: The Manager may, but is not required to, make cash distributions to members at any time in the Manager's sole discretion. All distributions shall be made pro rata based on membership interests.

SECTION 4 — Transfer of Membership (Business Incorporation Policy §4(a))

Admission of New Members: New members may be admitted only upon unanimous approval of all existing members and the Manager. The admission must be filed in the Company Docket.

Transfer of Membership Interests: Any transfer, sale, assignment, or pledge of membership interests requires:

(a) Written notice to the Manager at least 30 days prior to the proposed transfer, filed in the Company Docket;

(b) Approval by members holding at least 75% of membership interests; and

(c) The transferee's written acceptance of all terms of this Certificate of Formation.

Removal of Members: Members may be removed for cause (including breach of fiduciary duty, criminal conduct, or failure to meet capital contributions) by resolution of members holding at least 75% of membership interests, excluding the member subject to removal. Such removal must be filed in the Company Docket.

Inactivity: Members inactive for more than 90 days may have their membership interests purchased back by the LLC at fair market value as determined by the Manager.

SECTION 5 — Dispute Resolution (Business Incorporation Policy §5(a))

Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of or relating to this Certificate of Formation, or the breach, termination, or validity thereof, shall be resolved as follows:

(1) Good Faith Negotiation: The parties shall first attempt to resolve the dispute through good faith negotiation within 14 days of written notice of the dispute.

(2) Mediation: If negotiation fails, the dispute shall be submitted to mediation administered by a neutral third party agreed upon by the disputing parties within 30 days.

(3) Court Proceedings: If mediation fails or is refused, any party may pursue resolution through the court system of the Commonwealth of Redmont.

SECTION 6 — Amendments (Business Incorporation Policy §6(a))

This Certificate of Formation may be amended by resolution of members holding at least 50% of total membership interests by voting power. All proposed amendments must:

(a) Be posted in the Company Docket at least 72 hours prior to the vote;

(b) Remain open for vote for at least 48 hours; and

(c) Upon approval, be filed in the Company Docket showing both the text before and after amendment, as required by LEA Part III, Section 1(8)(a).

SECTION 7 — Dissolution and Winding Up

The LLC may be dissolved by resolution of members holding at least 75% of membership interests. Upon dissolution, the Manager shall wind up the LLC's affairs pursuant to LEA Part III, Section 9, including:

(a) Ending all contracts;

(b) Paying all creditors and debts in full;

(c) Finishing all pending lawsuits;

(d) Distributing remaining assets to members pro rata based on their membership interests.

A Certificate of Dissolution must be filed in the Company Docket and signed by the DOC Secretary upon completion of winding up.

I, Krowyn, as Incorporator of Krowyn Accounting LLC, hereby certify that the information contained in this Certificate of Formation is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge, and that this LLC is formed in accordance with the Legal Entity Act of the Commonwealth of Redmont.
