Your Honour,

Plaintiff respectfully moves to compel production of the materials timely requested in Plaintiff's Rule 4.7 Request for Discovery.

Plaintiff filed the Rule 4.7 request before the close of Discovery. The requested materials include:

Crime Record #20869 as it existed when the three convictions were entered;
the original reports and submissions associated with P-002, P-003, and P-004;
contemporaneous location evidence supporting Count One;
available creation or modification history for Crime Record #20869;
source materials used to prepare D-001 through D-003;
underlying authentication materials for D-004 through D-007; arrest and notification records concerning the August 13 arrest; and any available records concerning damage inflicted upon Plaintiff while confined in Revcatraz.

These materials are directly relevant to claims and evidence already before the Court.

Discovery is approaching its conclusion, and Defendant has not yet produced the requested materials or identified which requested items it contends do not exist or cannot be produced.

01 Analyzed text

No passages highlighted.

Rule 4.7 provides that relevant discovery material ordered by the Court must be supplied by the opposing party to the best of its ability under sanction of contempt and perjury.

Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests that the Court:

grant Plaintiff's Rule 4.7 request and order Defendant to produce the requested materials to the extent they exist and are within Defendant's possession or control;

require Defendant, for any requested category that cannot be produced, to state that the material does not exist, is not within Defendant's possession or control, or otherwise cannot be produced;

set a compliance deadline of 24 hours from the Court's order, or such other period as the Court considers reasonable; and keep Discovery open until 24 hours after Defendant's compliance, solely so Plaintiff may review the production, identify any produced witnesses by name, and address issues arising directly from the ordered production.

Plaintiff is not requesting additional interrogatories or expansion of the scope of Discovery. This Motion seeks only completion of Discovery that was timely requested while Discovery was open.
