

Queendom - Alexandria Treaty of Recognition and Special Autonomy

Preamble:

The Dominion of Queendom and the Kingdom of Alexandria, having always had close ties and once been connected at the hip, put forth the good faith effort towards bringing their people, their goals and their economic dreams closer together via this treaty. The Governments of the Dominion of Queendom and the Kingdom of Alexandria hereby enter into this treaty of Recognition and Special Autonomy.

Article I: Recognition

The Kingdom of Alexandria formally recognizes the Wilderness Community of the Dominion of Queendom in the Wilderness of Redmont. The Wilderness Community of the Dominion of Queendom, having obtained Wilderness Community status under Redmont's Wilderness and Alexandria Act on 10/04/2026 via Redmont's Executive Order 63/26.

Article II: Union of Lands

The Dominion of Queendom, of its own free will and of its own choice, agrees to unite with the Kingdom of Alexandria and swears fealty and loyalty to the Crown of Alexandria as a subject of Alexandrian rule as laid out in this Treaty. The Dominion of Queendom, henceforth, shall be a part of the Kingdom of Alexandria

Article III: One Alexandria, Two Systems

The Dominion of Queendom, as a subject of Alexandria, shall retain its full autonomy and shall continue to operate its system of government, laws and rules while being under the canopy and protection of the Kingdom of Alexandria.

The Dominion of Queendom, by passage of law or other rules, may request or adopt laws, rules or policy of the Kingdom of Alexandria as they so please. The Kingdom of Alexandria's Ministry of Foreign Affairs shall work closely with the Government of the Dominion of Queendom in providing as much or a little support as the Government of the Dominion of Queendom wants.

Article IV: Special Autonomy Region

Under the System laid out in Article III of this Treaty, the Dominion of Queendom's status as a part of the Kingdom of Alexandria shall be considered that of a Special Autonomy Region, which is defined as land within the Kingdom of Alexandria that is given special privileges of self-governance.

Article V: Pathway to Dominionhood

The Dominion of Queendom may, at any time of its choosing, continue negotiations or diplomatic talks with Alexandria towards becoming a fully recognized and incorporated Dominion of Alexandria.

If the Dominion of Queendom ever becomes a Dominion and, instead, wants to return to Special Autonomy Region Status, the Dominion of Queendom's Government shall give the Government of the Kingdom of Alexandria 14 days' notice to return the Dominion of Queendom to Special Autonomy Region status.

Article VI: Force of Treaty

Upon receiving the Signature of the Prime Minister of Alexandria and the Mayor of Queendom shall be in effect, pending final approval by the Parliament of Alexandria.

The Kingdom of Alexandria may withdraw from this treaty at any time, so long as they provide 14 days notice before withdrawal.

The Dominion of Queendom, to formally withdraw from the Treaty, must put the withdrawal to a vote that receives a supermajority of support of Citizens of Queendom.

This 10th Day of October 2026

Sir Wigglesworth C. Shimmerclutch
Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Alexandria
