COMMONWEALTH OF REDMONT

Certificate of Formation

Redmont Market Access LLC

A Limited Liability Company

Adopted November 3, 2026

The undersigned incorporator adopts this Certificate of Formation under the Redmont Corporate Entities Act (the "RCEA") to form the limited liability company identified below (the "Company"). This Certificate is the Company's formation instrument and governs its internal affairs subject to applicable law.

1. Name and Form

The registered name of the Company is Redmont Market Access LLC. The Company is a limited liability company formed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Redmont. The Company is formed by filing this instrument, subject to the RCEA's review and deemed-approval process.

2. Incorporator and Associated In-Game Company

The sole incorporator is prv8. The corresponding company in the DemocracyCraft business plugin is named RMA. The Company shall maintain that corresponding in-game company unless the Department of Commerce waives the requirement or the Company updates the name in a filing permitted by law.

3. Purpose and General Powers

The Company may engage in any lawful act or activity for which a limited liability company may be organized under the laws of Redmont. It has the full lawful capacity and powers available to an entity under the RCEA, including the power to contract, own and deal with property, appoint agents, conduct business, and pursue any lawful purpose.

Its business may include developing and operating software, a website and related financial technology; integrating with application programming interfaces; and providing customer-directed purchase and sale order entry and transmission to The Stock Exchange ("TSE") for execution on TSE. The Company may accept, arrange, route or execute securities orders only to the extent permitted by law and after obtaining and maintaining every required licence, authorisation and approval.

4. Initial Member and Ownership

The Company's sole initial member is prv8. On formation, the Company shall issue to prv8 all one hundred (100) Class A Founder Units. Those units constitute all membership interests then issued and outstanding and carry one hundred percent (100%) of the Company's voting power, management authority and rights to distributions. No Class B or other third-party interest is issued on formation.

5. Member-Managed Governance and Founder Control

The Company is member-managed. The Class A Founder Units carry all member voting and management rights. The holder of those units may act for the Company, approve Company actions, appoint agents and delegate operational duties. No manager is appointed on formation. While prv8 holds all issued Class A Founder Units, prv8 has one hundred percent (100%) of the Company's voting power and exclusive management control, subject to non-waivable law.

No person other than prv8 may receive or hold a Class A Founder Unit without prv8's prior written consent. No issuance of a nonvoting interest dilutes or transfers the voting or management rights attached to the Class A Founder Units.

6. Future Interests and Admission of Members

While prv8 holds all issued Class A Founder Units, additional members and interests may be admitted or issued only with prv8's written approval. The Company is authorised from formation to issue an unlimited number of Class B Nonvoting Economic Units. Each Class B unit has no vote and no right to manage, direct or bind the Company, appoint or remove a manager, or approve an amendment or other Company action, except to the extent a right is expressly required by non-waivable law. Any economic or distribution rights of a Class B unit must be stated in the written terms approved for that issuance.

Every issuance, admission, transfer or cancellation of a membership interest shall be documented and entered in the Company's member register and filed in the Company Register when required by the RCEA. The Company shall maintain its Entity Profile to reflect the current members, classes and interests.

7. Noncustodial Order-Routing Model and Licensing

The Company's intended service model is noncustodial. Customer money and securities are intended to remain with TSE through an entity authorised to provide custody, or with another appropriately authorised custody provider. If TSE's exchange or executing entity is not authorised to hold those assets, they shall remain with its separately authorised custodian. The Company shall not receive, hold, pool, pledge, invest or use customer money or securities for its own account or operating expenses.

The Company shall not begin live customer order-routing, brokerage, securities dealing or other regulated financial activity, or represent that it is licensed to do so, unless and until it is an incorporated entity in good standing and has obtained and maintains the applicable Department of Commerce licence and any other required approval. This includes a Class C Investment Firm licence where the Company's order-routing or execution activity constitutes broking or arranging securities transactions. Any custody, payment, settlement or other regulated activity shall require the separate authorisation applicable to that activity. The Company shall conduct its business and use its registered name in compliance with the RCEA and the Redmont Commerce and Finance Act.

8. Duration and Limited Liability

The Company has perpetual existence unless dissolved in accordance with the RCEA. The Company is responsible for its own debts and obligations. No member is personally liable for a Company obligation solely by reason of being a member, subject to liability expressly assumed or imposed by applicable law.

9. Amendments

This Certificate may be amended only by a written resolution approved by the holder of all issued Class A Founder Units and filed as required by the RCEA. No amendment or issuance may reduce or transfer prv8's exclusive voting and management control without prv8's express written approval. Any mandatory class vote, filing, approval or other non-waivable statutory requirement remains applicable.

ADOPTION

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned adopts this Certificate of Formation as of November 3, 2026.
