The Finance Corporation Bylaws

This document defines the bylaws of The Finance Corporation (“TFC”).

1. Chairman

a. The chairman of the finance corporation is a member of the board, elected by the board, who oversees the board and facilitates matters relating to the shareholders and shares.
b. The chairman shall be elected by a vote of the board where a 24H declaration period commences, giving members 24H to declare interest in the role. A 24H voting period where the board members will have 24H to vote on the candidates who declared interest. Upon reaching a simple majority in favour of one candidate, if there is a tie it shall be resolved by negotiation of the tied candidates, if no agreement is reached within 24H the Chairman shall be picked by random.
c. The Chairman can be removed by either:
    i. A board vote with a simple majority of no confidence in the Chairman.
    ii. Being found to have less than 6H playtime in the last 30D.
d. The Chairman has the following powers:
    i. The chairman is responsible for facilitating communication between the board and shareholders, including proposing amendments.
    ii. The chairman shall have the power to break any ties on any board votes, other than ones electing or removing a chairman.
    iii. The Chairman will oversee any deal or agreement that may dilute/sell shares or assets by the company.

2. Deputy Chairman

a. The deputy chairman has extra power by themselves, and shall act as a normal board member for most of the time.
b. In the case that the Chairman is incapacitated, unavailable or there is no chairman, the Deputy Chairman shall fill in as the Acting Chairman of TFC.
c. The process of electing and removing a Deputy Chairman shall be the same as the processes for the Chairman.
